HARLEM'S DECEPTIVE TRACK.

There was a most deceptive track at Harlem yesterday. It was like grease to the horse not gaited to run in slippery going. The only mile race on the card was run in 1:52½, the contending horses being exhausted at the finish.

Eugene Leigh won the first and second events. Parson beat the favorite, Czarowitz, to start with. He appeared to be winning easily a furlong away. But Czarowitz made a stout bid at the finish and Parson had to do his best to win. Organ Pilot was played for a "good thing" on the strength of the going being made to fit his stride.

King Barleycorn just sauntered off with the second race.

The ring's mathematician figured Forte and Duke of Haven to have equal chances for the third race. Many fancied and backed Bonito. She had clear sailing and lasted long enough to get the decision over Forte. Forte almost stumbled at the start and slipped and sprawled throughout. B. J. Johnston claimed and got Duke of Haven for $1,100.

Sam Hildreth says there were 200 2-year-olds in San Francisco this winter, and 190 of them could be at Santello. His comment was not in line. Santello won the fourth race, Black Venus, the odds-on favorite, finishing third. In the first three furlongs Santello promised to be beaten off. The last half, the others having run laughingly replied: "Well, I'm not a seller. I'm a buyer now, and nobody will sell me horses. I guess I'll have to begin claiming. That's the only chance I have to get horses." "Well, just the way it was in California," added Ryan. "You never saw another such situation as there was out there. Nobody would buy a horse you wanted to sell, and nobody would sell you a horse you wanted to buy."

There may be several starters in addition to those named to start for the Memorial Handicap Monday. Under the conditions of all the Harlem and Washington Park stakes any nomination has the right to start up to forty minutes before post time by paying the starting fee.

ORNAMENT'S BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

The best 4-year-old in America with the best lightweight jockey in America on his back was a combination too strong for the other starters and so Ornament's name was added yesterday to the illustrious list of Brooklyn Handicap winners. So far things have not been breaking any too well for the western horses down east, so it is comforting recompense to have western horses carry off first and second honors in the chief event of the important Gravesend meeting. The history of the Brooklyn Handicap is tabulated below:

Omaha to Take Up Racing.

The Omaha Fair and Racing Association have decided to give a fifteen days' running meeting, commencing August 18. This is one of the most substantial associations in the west, and the fact of its giving a running meeting, in addition to the great trotting meeting, will aid western racing. Omaha has one of the most beautiful mile tracks in the country. The business interests of Omaha will support the meeting and seek to make it a permanent one.

Saturday's Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Presiding Judge Rees was called from the city on a sad mission yesterday. He received a message in the morning conveying the intelligence that his youngest sister had died, and he left last evening for Pittsburgh, the home of his parents. In his absence Associate Judge Price will fill his place at Oakley."

Loki, bay, 4, by Logic—The Slashes, broke down while being worked at Morris Park on Friday, May 20, and he is expected to be "on the shelf" for some time.

The sale of the Monmouth Park racetrack property has been indefinitely postponed.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Damien ran kindly. He was lucky and kept in the good going. Had perfect handling. He is uncertain and best in mud. Ronald is good, finished strong, and is extremely game. He lacked the early speed to kill off Damien. Ortolan ran a good race. Handpress was badly handled and eased at end. He requires a strong jockey.

Winner—B. c, by Kingston—Lady Ballard.
Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won easily. Kingdon was best, but lucky. Wernberg, off poorly and generally unlucky, closed strong. He is good in mud. Miller cannot stay and quit, being killed off by Kingdon. He will do among cheaper ones; likes mud. Havelock closed strong at the end. Watch him. Rusher was eased at the end and ran a good race. Muggins was also eased at the finish. Rhinelander wants a fast track and a route to do his best.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Order—Victorine.
Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won easily. Ornament was easily the best horse. Was off none too well and ran to his best form. Holladay closed like a whirlwind and is good. He will do better in fast going and always favors a route. Sly Fox was the second best horse. He suffered from a weak finish. He has some class. Watch Tillo. He appeared to be galloping the first mile and closed strong. Is good. Don d'Oro took it easy in first mile, but quit like a dog. He must outclass his company on a speed basis to do his best. Semper Ego wants fast track and cheaper company. He is not too reliable either. Ogden ran well for a part of the journey but seems of no account in such company. On Deck must have fast going. Throw out his race. He looks good. Watch him.
Scratched—Dr Catlett, 117; Howard Mann, 115; Lehman, 114; Merry Prince, 105; Ben Eder, 109; Our Johnny, 88; Handball, 100; Royal Stag, 110.

Winner—Ch. c, by Tyrant—Shena Van.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Tyr Shena liked the going and finished strong and game. Cormorant stopped at the end; was probable short and appeared to be merely galloping the first part. Autumn, poorly handled, closed strong. The last two were eased up at the end.
Scratched—Chopin, 109; Half Time, 105; Kirkwood, 102; Joe Carroll, 100.

themselves out, he had only to gallop over them and finish alone. Amyntas, by Volante—Quiver, had worked a half in 48½ Thursday morning, and her party considered the purse a gift. She opened at 10 and was quickly backed to 3. She led into the stretch and then gave it up. In the last hundred yards Elsie G squeezed Black Venus against the rails. Turner repeatedly whipped Campbell across the back, but Campbell did not pull out. Then Turner claimed a foul. It was not allowed.

Dave Waldo won the five furlong dash all the way. Lord Fairfax came from the ruck and finished second in stout fashion.

The sixth race furnished another illustration of how badly horses racing in front could tire in such going. Dont Skip Me, the favorite, looked a certain winner when a half had been run. In another furlong, Albertvale, a bad last along the back stretch, dashed through the leading division and won with astonishing ease. The winner was well backed.

Jess Hart was fined $10 for not breaking with Czarowitz in the first race.

Ed Brown (Brown Dick), arrived at Hawthorne Saturday with eight 2-year-olds.

Nick Hall lands at Hawthorne Sunday. He will bring nine horses, including the good 2-year-olds Canace and Sevens.

Before the third race Pat Dunne said: "They have made my horse a 6 to 5 shot. I don't know whether he is 1 to 2 or a 10 to 1 shot in that going, nor does anybody else." Pat also authorized the statement that Salvage will not start in the Memorial Handicap, Monday.

Tom Ryan says: "The only chance for me to get the money is to buy horses from Pat Dunne. Whenever I buy a horse from him that horse goes right along and gets the money." Pat

"I HAVE STUDIED YOUR BOOK, 'HORSE Racing, or The Art of Making Money at the Race Track' and I don't see that there is any room for criticism, for I think that anyone who has played the races can't help but see that every word is true. I think there is more to be learned in 15 minutes reading it than any ordinary man could learn in as many years by simply following the races," writes an ardent admirer
of this handsome and sensible little book,

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Trainer Lakeland said to-day that he sent Hamburg to the post yesterday fit to run a great race. The colt had worked well enough to win in the best company, he says. The race was a bad one from every point of view, and Hamburg was beaten nearly twenty lengths and in a gallop by Bowling Brook and Previous. Bowling Brook's race was not at all remarkable, which makes the crushing defeat of Hamburg all the more unexplainable. The colt was soundly beaten in the sixth furlong of the race and in slow time.

There are no explanations that exactly fit the case of Hamburg. The most reasonable is that the colt will not stay over a distance of ground and that he is a sprinter pure and simple. Only recently Lakeland entered Hamburg in the Brighton Cup at two miles. The poorest selling plater in America could defeat Hamburg at two miles if nothing was wrong with yesterday's contest. There is understood to be some friction between Mr. Daly's agent and Trainer Lakeland, and it is not known whether the latter will continue to train the colt. All the horsemen agreed that Hamburg was sent to the post well trained for the race, and say the true cause of his defeat is his inability to stay over six furlongs. If yesterday's contest was a true one, Hamburg in his 3-year-old form is not worth forty cents as a racer.

Fred Taral, who rode Hamburg, said today:
"I don't believe that Hamburg is a quitter, and I don't think that Bowling Brook will be able to beat him on a fast track. He simply could not handle himself in the mud. The public will find before the season is over that that was not Hamburg's race."—New York Sun.

The Coney Island Jockey Club is building a field stand for use during the approaching June meeting. It will take in that section of the lawn occupied two seasons ago by the annexed stand of the betting pavilion.

Time, 2:51, 53½, 1:05½, 1:21½, 1:48½.

Winner—B. g. 7, by Mr. Pickwick—Quietly.
Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second and third driving hard. Hush was at a false price considering the going. Prince of India did not seem to relish the mud. Lady Britannic and Laverna had a lot of speed. Sir Joseph Lister slipped and nearly fell on the first turn.

Scratched—Alva, 108; Osric II, 107; Irksome, 106; Bill Dawdy, 104; Briggs, 104; Confession,

Winner—Ch. g. 5, by Hanover—Blessing.
Post 16 minutes. Start poor. Won in a hard drive; second and third the same. Montgomery is not at his best in such sticky going. He likes thin mud or a hard track. Jesse nearly beat him racing with him. Marzella had a lot of speed. Burns saved a lot of ground with Veloce. He would have won in a few more strides.

Scratched—Loving Cup, 90.

Time, 1:13, 26½, 52, 1:04½.

Winner—B. c. by Leonatus—Plantress.
Post 16 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving hard. Leo Planter revelled in the going. Ben Bramble could not untrack himself the first part of the race. He does not like mud. Ben is a high class colt, and his class landed him where he was at the end. Fausturo had no excuses. Jerry Hunt had a lot of speed, but was green.

Scratched—Sea Lion, 121; Cathedral, 121; Hittick, 118; Dick Collins, 118; Blaze Face, 110;

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Fervor and Our Chance raced themselves into the ground. Both like a shorter route. St. Roque, played for a "good thing," seemed unable to navigate in the stiff going. Madeline ran a much improved race. Skate was well ridden. He is a good horse right now.

Scratched—Schiller, 100.

lared her. The Chemist is just now a good horse.

Winner—B. g. 5, by Paramatta—Sis Himyar.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving and staggering. The others were doing their best. It was a tired lot at the finish. Parson seemed to be winning easily at the furlong pole. Czaronitz stopped and came again. At the sixteenth pole she was lapped on Parson. Turner then began riding, finally using his whip. Hart got Czaronitz away running and she had no excuses. Captain Russell showed a sharp turn of speed but was high in flesh and was short. Organ Pilot was a disappointment. Warren Point is a consistent performer.

Winner—Ch. c. by Kantaka—Nattot.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won eased up; second well in hand after an early drive. King Barleycorn outclassed his field. Turner had a stout hold of him all the way. He is a good colt, especially in heavy going. McCarren is game. Sloan was hard at work on him at the head of the stretch. He, too, favors heavy going. Alpina showed a rare turn of speed, but quit to nothing when the pinch came. Primavera ran a fair race, and Ed Tipton a bad one. The winner was run up to $4,505 and bought in. B J Johnston was the runner up.

Winner—B. f. by Longstreet—Bonetta.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second driving and gaining at every stride. Bonito ran a good race, but was extremely lucky in winning. Forte was much the best, and had the race been a sixteenth further would have won off by himself. The colt slipped at the start and Martin was unable to keep him within striking distance the first part of it. Marito ran a clever race. She stood a drive, too, at the end. Papa Harry was pumped out in the first three-quarters. He is partial to heavy going, but dislikes a distance. The sticky mud anchored Duke of Haven.
